

Country: the Russian Federation (Date: April 2024)

Documentation required (i.e. issued/endorsed by medical practitioner or authorized health authority)	Restrictions (i.e. qualitative and/or quantitative)	National Competent Authority (to be contacted for more detailed information)
a) Valid medical prescription <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Days / Quantities/Doses Narcotic drugs <input type="text"/> Psychotropic substances <input type="text"/>	Name: Ministry of Health of the Russian Federation Address: 127994, Moscow, Rachmanovski, 3/25 P, 1, 2, 3, 4 Tel.: (495) 628-44-53 Fax: (495) 628-50-58 E-mail: info@minzdrav.gov.ru https://minzdrav.gov.ru
b) Doctor's certificate endorsed by the health authorities of the country of residence <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Medical document must be issued by authorized body of country of residence and must list the disease being treated for which the narcotic drug or psychotropic substance is required, as well as the name and quantity of medication. c) Certificate issued by the health authorities of the country of destination <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> See below. d) Presentation of the original prescription at the Customs of the country of destination <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Documents must be provided along with customs declaration form. e) Other kind of documents, if yes, please indicate <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	List of prohibited substances. If yes, please specify Narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances included in List I of the Russian legislation. Other information Narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances listed in Lists II and III of the Russian legislation may be transported for treatment purposes. Supporting medical documents or their certified copies made in a foreign language must be accompanied by a certified translation into the Russian language.	The full texts of the mentioned regulations are posted in the open information and legal systems of the Internet (found at www.consultant.ru , www.garant.ru , www.ig.ru)
Export certificate for the specific narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances issued by the competent national authority of the patient's country of residence, as indicated in the official UN publication «Competent National Authorities under the International Drug Control Treaties». An import certificate issued by a similar competent authority from the country of destination is also required.		